UMES ANNOUNCES 2nd $25,000 SCHOLARSHIP TO WINNER OF SALISBURY
SUNRISE ROTARY JUNIOR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

The University of Maryland Eastern Shore will again award a four year, $25,000 tuition scholarship for its PGA Golf Management Program to the winner of the 10th Annual Junior Golf Championship, sponsored by the Salisbury Sunrise Rotary Club.

The 18 Hole Medal Play Championship will be held on Thursday, August 6, 2009 at Nutters Crossing Golf Club, and is open to boys and girls from 13 through College. The primary recipient of this scholarship will be a Junior or Senior High School player interested in pursuing a career in Golf Management at the University of Maryland Eastern Shore.

“We look forward to working with the Sunrise Rotary Club to make this scholarship available on an ongoing basis to those talented and passionate young men and women who are interested in pursuing a bachelor’s degree, leading to a career in the business and industry of golf,” said PGM Director Billy Dillon.

Sunrise Rotary President Dennis Weller commented that “We’re thrilled to partner with the University of Maryland Eastern Shore to help award this annual scholarship. We’re grateful for their vision and generosity in providing this fantastic opportunity.”
